

Clinical Technician

We are looking for motivated, enthusiastic employees to come join our team. All team members share a common commitment to serve our patients and each other with an emphasis on respect, consideration and care.

In addition to a great working environment, RNW offers a Competitive Salary. We observe 7 closed holidays, a flexible Paid Time-Off (PTO) program and either free or paid parking at all locations.

Description:

We are seeking a full-time clinic technician who will assist our Ophthalmologists by performing ophthalmic clinical functions. Responsibilities include: taking and recording patient medical histories, preparing patients for examination, performing diagnostic testing, ocular measurements, visual acuity and visual fields as directed by a physician, educates /informs patients about planned treatments or procedures, and maintains exam room order and inventory. Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

Education –High School Diploma or equivalent required. COT, COA, OSC, CMA, EMT certification required, or the ability to gain certification upon hire.

Experience – Minimum of one year medical experience preferred; key boarding ability of 45 wpm, EHR experience (NextGen), Knowledge of ophthalmic medical office procedures specific to a vitreo-retinal practice highly desirable.

Full-time position

Monday thru Friday

Business hours will vary slightly depending on patient census

Access to reliable transportation to support satellite clinics required.

We look forward to hearing from you - Come join our team!